

MIDLANDS SHARED SERVICES FORUM

Join us for our latest event in partnership with the Midlands Shared Services Forum and learn how operational excellence can help take you from strategy to success.

We'll investigate what excellence means to different shared services centres exploring how operational excellence delivers organisational development, continuous improvement, and sustainable growth.

Expect an interactive session with plenty of practical takeaways and an opportunity to share with other MSSF members. You'll also have the opportunity to hear expert insights from our guest speaker, Judy Hart, CEO of Investors in Excellence, a globally-recognised performance improvement, organisational development and sustainable growth specialist. Discover what Shared Services Excellence looks like in 2023.

Make excellence your day-to-day choice, don't leave it to chance. Register today.
